

Friday night, Dan and I, along with our dear friend, Tracy were blessed to go to the Third Day 30th reunion tour with Zach Williams opening the show up at South Shore Lake Tahoe. Holy Spirit filled that auditorium from start to finish. Zach shared a great testimony. He grew up in Church, but he started finding comfort in drugs and alcohol. His dad owned a construction company, so Zach was able to work for his dad. Every morning, his dad would be playing Christian music on the radio. Zach would complain. His dad told him that if he gets to work before him, he could pick the radio station. That never happened 😊. But one day, he heard Third Day on the radio. He liked their rock style, and their music helped bring him back to follow Jesus. “Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Proverbs 22:6. He sang his new song that he collaborated with Ben Fuller “Wait for Me.” How many are so thankful that our Heavenly Father waits for us? After 30 years, Third Day filled the auditorium with praise and worship and testimony after testimony about how great our Heavenly Father has been through every trial, every victory, every song that ministered to people, their friendships and for every good and perfect gift. “Every good and every perfect gift is from above and comes down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.” James 1:17. At the end of the show, Mac Powell shared that he recently reviewed videos of many of their shows over the 30 years and the one thing that has been consistent was it has all been about Jesus! Amen! They ended by singing “Holy Forever” which is one of my favorite praise songs. It was not a concert, it was a glorious worship. May we be a symphony to our precious Jesus!

“No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.” 1 Cor. 10:13. Temptation, we all have had temptations in our lives. Perhaps, as a child, you gave in to temptation and took a cookie or candy you were not supposed to take. We all have choices as to whether or not we are going to give in to temptations or depend upon trusting God to help us resist temptation. Today, our lesson is about temptations and the consequences. Thank you, Mallory
