

Remember -
our fallen heros.
They are the reason that we are free.

We give thanks to all those who have served to defend our freedom. “Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong. Let all that you do be done with love.” 1 Corinthians 16:13-14. The men and women who have laid down their lives to keep us free loved their families and their country, and I pray they knew the love of our Father. Their sacrifice gives us the freedom we now receive in this country today. “The memory of the righteous is blessed;” Proverbs 10:7. My study Bible shares this: ‘In Biblical times, a person’s name was significant and important. When a person’s name was remembered by future generations for good, that person’s life was believed to have been of great value.’ Though we may not know them all by name, we can agree, their sacrifice is of great value. “Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends.” John 15:13. Our Jesus loved you and me that much – to lay down His life as a ransom for our inequities. One of my favorite quotes for Memorial Day is “Home of the Free, Because of the Brave.” Not only are we blessed to live in a country that was founded on Judeo Christian values and be free, but we serve a Father that gave us His Only Son, so we ALL have the opportunity to live free with the promise of eternal life. Maybe tomorrow is just another day for some to have a BBQ or enjoy a day off from work, but it is so much more. Tomorrow is a day for us to be thankful for all the men and women who laid down that right for us to do so. Every day is a day for us to be thankful. Let us especially be thankful to Jesus who laid down His life for the love He has for you and me. Amen!

In the morning, Lord, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait expectantly. Ps 5:3 Our lesson is about listening to God’s voice and waiting patiently for Him to guide us. The senior servant of Abraham was sent back to Ur to find a wife for Isaac, Abraham’s son. Abraham gave him few instructions other than do not bring back a Canaanite woman but one from his people. So, the senior servant had to listen to the voice of God to help him select the young woman. He successfully chooses the right girl, Rebekah. Just like the servant, we need to listen to the voice of God to help us throughout our daily lives. Thank you, Jeanne, for sharing God’s word with
