

As we study our last segment in Acts, we find Paul giving testimony about his “Road to Damascus” life changing experiencing. He audibly heard Jesus say to him, “Saul, Saul (his name before he was transformed to Paul), why are you persecuting Me?” There is a road that leads to destruction. That road can lead to very bad life choices. It may seem fun or even exciting, but will it glorify our Heavenly Father? If the answer is “no,” then we need to find that “exit” sign that leads us to repentance and get off that road that ultimately leads to everlasting life in hell. Another song I missed during my air conditioning/no music Summer was “The Road Less Traveled” by Joel Barnes and Seph Schlueter. The first verse and chorus say this; “I was never one for rules, don’t want a cookie cutter faith. I’ve seen Jesus walk with sinners, turn rebels into saints. There’s more outside these walls than the fear inside of me, so you can keep your earthly crowns, find me somewhere washing feet. So, I’m singing, ‘Lord, where You lead, I’ll follow, keep me walking down the straight and narrow, come gladness, tears, or trouble, give me Jesus and the road less traveled.” Paul was one of those rebels that Jesus turned into a saint! I was one of those rebels – praise Jesus I found the exit. Our purpose as followers of Jesus Christ is to encourage those who are driving badly down the wrong road to find that exit sign. That exit sign leads to the narrow road which leads to repentance and eternal life. In Acts 3:19-20 we learned, “Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord that He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before, whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things.” Find that exit sign, then help others to find that road less traveled. Amen!

“Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God is giving you.” Exodus 20:12 Our lesson today is about lists made in Joshua that name kingdoms conquered and the genealogy of Jesus. Lists can be boring until you realize the real purpose of the lists – outlining the history of a nation or a people. By studying the lists, you are honoring the people on the lists by telling how they created the land and culture you are living in. Keeping their memories alive through telling about what they accomplished during their lifetime, is honoring them. History is important in honoring our ancestors. Next time, you encounter a list in your readings, take time to think about those on the lists and how they influence your life. Thank you, Angela, for spending time with our
